Sub: Code of discipline for Vikram Sarabhai/Kasturba Gandhi Bhavan

Regulations on discipline are necessary because the University is a society where in all its members should enjoy conditions enabling them to achieve their aims set while joining.

As observed students of university residing at Vikram Sarabhai/Kasturba Gandhi Bhavan have been misbehaving and creating nuisance, which is not acceptable. Students should maintain discipline in their behaviour and are expected to show proper concern to the surroundings.

Damage to University property such as signages, furniture & fixtures, amenities provided inside the rooms were seen in past few months. Please use the facilities judiciously with utmost care and sincerity, in order to sustain the benefits provided at GSFC University campus.

Violent, indecent, disorderly, threatening or offensive behaviour or language (whether expressed orally or in writing, including electronically) whilst on university premises or engagement in any university activity or otherwise affecting or concerning students or staff members of M/s GSFC Ltd, will be viewed very seriously by the university management. Any complaint of indecent behaviour / noisy situations from neighbours will result in severe disciplinary action.
